Japanese Surface
Vessels Machined
U.S. Gunboat

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—State Secretary Hull announced Thursday that official reports had confirmed that Japanese surface vessels machined the U. S. gunboat Panay after it had been bombed from the air by Japanese naval forces. He said the confirmation had been transmitted to the United States Ambassador at Tokyo for presentation to the Japanese Foreign Office. Some of the Japanese, it was said, honored the Panay and remained on it about five minutes, although the American colors were flying and were easily discernible.

JAP REAR ADMIRAL LET OUT
BECAUSE OF PANAY BOMBING

SHANGHAI, Dec. 16.—Read Admiral Mitsumasa, chief of Japanese naval operations, was relieved of his post Thursday as a result of the bombing of the United States gunboat Panay. Mitsumasa was removed from his post because of his alleged role in the bombing of the Panay, which carried the announcement of its removal, declared that the Japanese government was acting swiftly to carry out its pledge to punish officers responsible for an attack.

KING AND QUEEN SHAKEN
IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

LONDON, Dec. 16.—Their Majesties the King and Queen were shaken Thursday when an automobile collided with their car in Trafalgar Square as they were returning to Buckingham Palace from a church service. No one was injured. Damage was slight and both cars involved proceeded after a short delay.

Charles McNaughton
Appleton District
Passes Away

Was Pioneer in Western Area, Having Come Into The Country In 1912—Passed At The Age of 74—One of the Largest Ever Seen in the District—Death Cause—Gloom Over Whole Community.

APPLETON, Dec. 14.—A shadow fell over this and surrounding districts when the death of Charles McNaughton, an early settler, was announced early Friday morning at the family home here. McNaughton, who had been in poor health for some time, it was hoped that he might regain a measure of good health again. He was born in Brantford County, Ontario, in 1863, and came to the West in 1912. He was a pioneer settler and had been in the country for 25 years. He was a member of the local church and was well known in the community.

McNaughton operated the family farm three miles from the town of Appleton. He was a pioneer settler and had been in the country for 25 years.
